MANOR HOUSE

Young Lady's Bedroom

A bedroom once filled with toys and girlish pink is now transformed into a room of elegant sophistication with bold touches. The black and cream palette paired with the vibrant glazed walls, complement the exquisite silk and satin fabrics, wrapping the room in luxury. The closet is fully fitted with coordinating wall covering and filled with designer wear. GLAMOUR ABOUNDS –from the custom chic velour upholstered panel bed to the silk fainting bench and soft wool rug. Classic, yet modern appointments include a Paris writing desk and custom night stands. A pair of salon chairs and a charming beverage table provide the perfect setting for a morning treat from the breakfast bar. Classic and refined, yet coy and playful, this retreat is a haven for any young woman.

Young Lady's Bathroom

Shade variations of white combined with tonal hues give the bath a wonderful crispness that is subtle and classic. GREEK THASSOS MARBLE FLOORS AND SURFACES are surrounded by architecturally inspired HAND MADE TILE. Traditional in style, yet contemporary in scale, the tile introduces yet another shade of white into this pristine space. Completed with a collection of fixtures, fittings and furniture in white and gleaming polished nickel, this bath is a young lady's dream.

Second Floor Loft

The loft is a space that offers the family a spot to catch up, read a book or simply grab a glimpse of what is happening in the great room below. Inspired by the home's history and style, a simple practice in French design is employed: the REPEAT OF A STRONG PATTERN. The fabric is "Rye Damask" from Lee Jofa and its European feel beautifully interprets and reinforces the home's connection to the past.

Second Floor Terraces

Warm and romantic, the upstairs terraces are reminiscent of the European-style gardens that grace city apartments and countryside houses. Fragrant lavender and stately boxwood fill the wood and iron VERSAILLES-STYLE PLANTERS and antique cast iron urns.

The front terrace is perfect for a private breakfast while enjoying the morning sun. A lazy afternoon can be spent lounging on the rear terrace, in 19th century style chaises overlooking the charming gardens below.

Study

Inspiration for the study is drawn from the BIEDERMEIER era, a tranquil time following the Napoleonic war. It is characterized by architectural simplicity with light colored fruitwoods offset by bands of ebony and inlaid maple. This furniture style is ideal for a traditional, refined look, appealing to the taste of either man or woman. Classic moldings were designed to add architectural importance and highlight the corniced drapery treatment. The upholstered walls in soft pale gold relax this comfortable space. LIGHTING PLAYS AN IMPORTANT ROLE in creating beams of sunshine which accent the artwork. The secluded downstairs location makes a perfect space for work or study.

Kitchen

The kitchen is often called the heart of the home. Nothing could be truer of this French country kitchen & adjacent hearth area. Although set in the newer section of the home; the kitchen is DETAILED WITH RESPECT TO THE PAST. A beautiful palette of French grey, white and blue was chosen for its serene and restful quality. To enhance the vintage feel of this kitchen, the cabinetry has been antiqued in grey & white and the timber island distressed IN KEEPING WITH OLD FRENCH PAINTED FURNITURE. Countertops are of honed marble and blue-grey limestone and antique hardware was chosen to complete the look. The hearth area incorporates an antique French mantle and comfortable seating by which to enjoy morning coffee or evening conversation.

Butler's Pantry

Charm abounds in the Butler's Pantry. Two banks of ORIGINAL CABINETRY BLEND SEAMLESSLY WITH NEWLY CONSTRUCTED CUSTOM CABINETS and other period details. A lovely new "silver sink," harkens to its ancestor where servants would gently wash the home's silver pieces without fear of denting them. The sconces and a spectacular mirror are so finely crafted they don't give away their age. Add a vintage chandelier and it feels like 1929 again!

PARISIAN PIED À TERRE

Kitchen

The day begins with le café et le journal, surrounded by walls papered with Farrow & Ball's block printed Bumble Bee Shadow pattern on a SUNNY YELLOW ground. The design was originally found in Josephine Bonaparte's boudoir, as a silk fabric, while the Napoleonic bee on the pattern signifies the French worker. Cheery, HAND PAINTED stripes coordinate the remaining walls. Floor paint was applied in a classic chequerboard pattern over the existing linoleum. Amusez-vous bien!

Bedroom

Blending the room's clean lines with its baroque-inspired furniture translates into a magnificent, yet peaceful, sanctuary. The airy palette is grounded by dark, substantial furniture that lends an embellished, but also contemporary, sophistication. The room's intrigue is found in its attention to detail. "DREAMY" WORDS ARE PAINTED INTO THE CREVASSES OF THE CUSTOM BED, with an octopus floor lamp adding unexpected drama. Mohair draperies and custom linens are among the elements that enhance warmth and texture. Only a few exquisite accessories are displayed, adding to the refined, uncluttered ambiance. Serving as a retreat to invigorate both body and soul, the bedroom is a tranquil place of rest.

Entry & Potting Room

The charming entryway decorated with wallpaper in a garden motif holds an antique desk tucked under the stairway. The adjacent POTTING ROOM IS A GARDENER'S DREAM—an enormous antique nickel baker's rack stores all the necessities for arranging flowers or planting a garden. The window treatment is both formal and whimsical, and complements the spectacular curtained fabric wall which screens the store room beyond. A stunning mirror reflects the room's natural sunlight and ceiling fixtures are fitted with 'grow lights' to provide supplemental light for plants.

Courtyard & Drive

Elegant, but slightly untamed, the plantings enhance the grounds of this European chateau by creating the feel of a country retreat. A mass of crabapples adorn the front lawn, a fragrant and picturesque landscape in the spring months. FORMALITY AND STRUCTURE ARE ADDED BY A BOXWOOD ALLEE which dots the entry drive. A bounty of flowering perennials and bulbs surround the drive court. Planted in drifts, the herbaceous display is left a bit loose and carefree to accent the estate's rustic charm.

Poolside Terrace

The terrace surrounding the pool has been transformed into a PRIVATE GETAWAY. A tented area for al fresco dining, soft fabrics and comfortable seating create the ultimate poolside retreat. An assortment of potted plants adds color and texture to the terrace, softening the expanse of stone which makes this terrace more welcoming.

The Scree Garden

Popularized by British garden designer, Beth Chatto, the Scree Garden provides a NATURAL ENVIRONMENT for full-sun, low-maintenance plantings. Nourished from nutrients produced by the rocks' natural decomposition, plants can readily root and thrive in this setting.

Inspired by the rustic, yet refined French architecture of this home, this intimate Scree garden was designed to accent the charming features of the outside stairway, glass and stone breezeway and south-facing windows. This wonderfully sunny space provides a "heat sink" in the spring months and supports early flower and foliage blooming- from hardy and tender container plantings to those planted in the ground. Stairs to the raised pool terrace are linked with a casual path of bluestone steppers set among pea stone and creeping plant. A green wall of ESPALIERED "KEIFFER" PEARS and a set of ANTIQUE IRON GATES define this special garden space.

Sunset Terrace

Strolling through the sunset terrace gardens in spring, one enjoys a COMBINATION OF INSPIRED TEXTURE, COLORS AND FORMALITY REFLECTIVE OF THE GARDENS OF FRANCE. Clipped hedges, detailed boxwood ornamentation, planters, and a mix of bluestone and gravel are accented by subtle plantings that bring spirit to the gardens.

The seating areas are cozy yet the space easily accommodates exquisite evening cocktail parties or large family gatherings. The rich color palette of the surrounding gardens bring life and vitality to the estate's old world charm.

The Pond

These scenic grounds in the back of the estate impart a wonderful sense of tranquility. A textured gravel floor with garden seating and a VIEW OF THE REFLECTING POND await your inspiration. Ornate urns potted with free flowing spring violas, forced bulbs, and fresh cut adornments create an inviting arena for all the senses.

Peripheral plantings include spring and summer flowering shrubs including, forsythia, viburnums, witch hazel and naturally kept boxwoods. An abundance of spring bulbs, herbs, and early blooming perennials provide a colorful delight to this garden. Strategically set boulders and flagstone pads guide the visitor to this perfect setting to inspire and calm the mind.

North Courtyard

The rear formal courtyard is an INTIMATE OUTDOOR GARDEN ROOM reminiscent of its classic French country origin. Since the Sunset Terrace provides the primary entertaining space for the home, this terrace is perfect for more intimate, casual gatherings. Special attention has been made to create a setting which can be enjoyed from the outside, as well as from the family room and loggia.

Highlighting this tranquil garden is a TERRACED FOUNTAIN typically found in gardens in Provence. It is surrounded by a formal herb/perennial garden with sheared boxwood hedges, raised antique clay paver edging and a tactile bluestone chip gravel path. Decorative benches, elegant urns on stone pillars and bold textural plantings add an interesting mix of texture and design. To shade the terrace from late afternoon sun, strategically spaced pear trees were planted. Lastly, a multitude of spring flowers illuminate the garden with color and permeate it with fragrance.

Coach House Drive

The north drive is an attractive, yet, subtle entryway from the north to the Coach House. An upright yew screen has been planted to conceal the air conditioning units. In this same area, a landscaped walk extends to the door with a bluestone chip patio for a table and chairs. Simplified planting of LITTLE-LEAF RHODODENDRONS enhance the understory of existing trees.

To the north, the walkway is landscaped with soft meadow plantings scattered under the existing oaks. A privacy hedge of arborvitae has been planted to screen the property along the drive.
